MINISTRY WORKOUT

DISTRICT-WIDE TRAINING EVENT

You are invited to share in this discipleship training event designed for pastors, elders, disciplemaking ministry workers, treasurers, church secretaries, SS teachers, and other church leaders. Not only will you learn new things, but also you will have a chance to network with others serving in similar ministry roles. This event will encourage, equip, and enhance your ministry. Come and be inspired and renewed in your vision for ministry!

Workshop Names and Descriptions

- 1, 2, 3, Jesus Loves Me; Sharing the Message of Salvation with Children: Be encouraged! With the right tools and a little practice, sharing the gift of salvation with children can be simple and effective. This workshop will provide you with a tried and true method and the tools to share the message. The practice is up to you!
- 5 Secrets of a Successful Youth Worker: Never underestimate the power of a dedicated youth worker or volunteer. Doug Franklin dives into 5 secrets of successful youth workers to help you hone your skills and move from transactional to transformational youth ministries. We'll discuss how God wants to use you, ways to grow self-feeders, and solutions for working with busy students.
- A Living Sacrifice; My Life Set Apart For God: So you have children in your ministry that have received Christ as their personal Savior but what's next? The act of consecration involves our lives being a living sacrifice to Him. In this workshop we will explore ways to live out their lives as His beloved children for His ultimate glory.
- Bringing the Message of Salvation to Life; a demonstration and practical application: Do you want to see first-hand what it looks like to clearly share the Gospel with children in your ministry? During this session, you will see a full demonstration using the information and tools introduced in the "1, 2, 3 Jesus Loves Me" workshop. After a time of focus and observation, it's your turn to put it all into practice!
- Challenging Students' Beliefs About Leadership: Students really are the best tools God uses to reach our world. Yet too often, students don't understand that they're wired and gifted to lead. Join us as Doug Franklin helps us understand what holds students back and how to unleash students into leadership in our youth ministries, allowing them to lead now.
- Change Essentials (This is the main topic of the all-day seminar): Principles and practices for guiding purposeful change. Guiding people through and to purposeful change can be daunting. Phil can share several fundamentals that lead to smoother and more sustainable change experiences. There will be four workshops available. You can attend all or just one of the workshops being offered.
 - Change Starts: When you Answer the Essential Question: In this sessions, attention will be given to why a change's WHY—its ultimate purpose—must be the primary consideration before delving into making a change.

- Change Stalls: When You Avoid the Essential Resource: Change naturally raises reluctance among those that will be impacted. Participants will consider how RESISTANCE should not be avoided but rather, serve as a powerful resource for mitigating concerns.
- Change Stumbles: When You Overlook Essential Leadership: There are specific leadership characteristics that boost change facilitation and influence adoption. Participants will explore these CATALYTIC LEADERSHIP imperatives and their relevance to moving things forward.
- Change Sticks: When You Include the Essential Ingredients: In addition to having a meaningful change purpose and effective change leadership, there are research-based COMPONENTS found in every successful change initiative. What are they and how do they help change “stick?”

7. Developing a Creative Bible Lesson: This session will focus on the “how” of preparing a Bible lesson and effective ways for telling Bible stories using a multi-sensory approach.

8. Empowering the Next Generation of Leaders: The church has not done a great job of empowering the next generation to lead well in the future. The average age of lead pastors today is 54, when 15 years ago the average age was 44. This workshop will give current leaders a framework for mentoring and releasing the young leaders in your sphere of influence.

Register early to get the workshop of your choice and get a discount!

9. Equipping Parents to Become Spiritual Leaders of Their Families: How can parents use milestones to disciple their children? Want to start a Parenting Ministry? What ministry resources can we promote to parents to equip them every day of the week? If any of these questions have sparked your interest, consider attending this workshop!

10. ESL Training: Reaching the Nations Next Door...Don't leave them standing out in the rain. Ideas for starting and sustaining your ESL Ministry. Consider teaching English as a second language and befriend the strangers in our land.

11. Explaining How Jesus is Good Amidst Social Issues: Millennials and Generation Z are activist generations and care deeply about social justice and social issues. This causes a questioning to transpire as to how Jesus can be good, when the church is seemingly unhelpful or uninvolved in these issues. This workshop will give framework on how to answer the question of how Jesus can be good when these issues are being either ignored or put aside by believers. It will also give ideas and helpful ways of engaging these issues.

12. Having a Missions Conference That Rocks Our World!: Need help planning an unforgettable Missions Conference? This session gives suggestions in creating and engaging an effective Missions Conference. Discover how to prepare for a visit from an International Worker

Also Featuring...

Doug Franklin is Founder and President of LeaderTreks Youth Ministry. Their mission at LeaderTreks Youth Ministry is to develop leaders to fulfill the Great Commission. They do this by supporting youth workers and providing intentional curriculum and experiences that grow students as disciples and develop them as leaders.

Bruce Lyman is Pastor of Outreach to Internationals and ESL Director at CrossPoint Alliance Church in Akron, Ohio. He will be presenting a workshop about Reaching Nations next door teaching for English as a Second Language.

and how to get your congregation involved.

13. Learning Styles & Age Level Characteristics: Understanding how people learn and age level characteristics and personality differences can help participants understand effective methods and strategies of teaching.
14. New Tax Law: Giving and Your Church: The new tax law is set to impact 2018 tax returns. Your members may be pleasantly surprised! But tax benefits of cash (church) donations may be drastically reduced. Learn related key changes to the tax law, giving techniques beneficial in the tax code, current and planned gift strategies, and services provided by the Alliance. These techniques can be beneficial for your church income budgets, capital campaigns, and debt reduction! Whose money is it anyway?
15. Optimizing Impact Through Yearly Planning: This session will discuss the reasons for prior planning, especially looking ahead to vital times in the year to optimize the impact of all church ministries.
16. Presenting the Gospel in a Culturally Relevant Manner: Making an impact by bridging the gospel and the culture of the place and people where we live.
17. Seven Secrets to Successful Senior Activities: This workshop will help Senior Adult Coordinators keep their Senior Adult Ministry Alive and Healthy. Get new ideas for events and activities to keep your senior's ministry active and growing in your church.

Register as a group or individual!

18. “Sunday Morning Like You’ve Never Seen It!” The Power of God’s TOLD Story: Come to this discovery workshop to learn how to use the power of God’s TOLD story to reach the “oral learner” and “digit-oral learners” inside your church doors. You will learn a practical, hands-on, discipleship tool in how to use stories in sermons, youth groups, Sunday School classes, home groups, teaching English (ESL) to the refugee and immigrant community...or even when you talk to your friends and acquaintances in your neighborhood coffeehouse.
19. The Biblical Basis for Holistic Ministries: Understanding God's love so that we love and minister to the whole person the whole Gospel of Jesus.
20. Will They Miss Us?: If our church were suddenly gone from the community, would they miss us? Elevating our presence in the community as we reach our “Jerusalem” for Christ.

DEBRIEF: What Are We Counting?

We all want to see the holy Spirit move in our churches. Celebrating what the Lord is doing is a key factor in a growing church.
