PRAYER REQUESTS

WPA District International Workers

Prayer Requests for the week of February 5-11, 2018

Monday, February 5: Mark & Cheryl – Please pray for the continued progress on the Ministry Center basement, where they will hold after school care. // Shawn & Becky – Pray for protection for the teen girl's camp in S-town and for the local churches. There have been recent security threats in S-town and known jihadist identified and an attack foiled. The local churches are feeling vulnerable and have taken measures to have additional security when they gather for worship.

Tuesday, February 6: Dave & Teresa – Pray for them and the officials making decisions as they start the process of returning to the Rep. of Congo. They are aiming for the end of the summer. // Eric & Vicki – Pray for their language study as some of their language partners will no longer be available. They are pushing hard to get the most out of these next 5-6 months.

Wednesday, February 7: Guy & Denise – Their daughter, Merriel, begins her student teaching today. Please pray that her 10 weeks will be a great learning experience for her. // Tim & Sarah – They are expecting their third child and will be returning home the end of March for home assignment so the birth can take place in the US. Please pray for strength and wisdom from God as they pack their belongings, wrap up ministry responsibilities, and say goodbye to friends and co-workers.

Thursday, February 8: Josh & Jaclyn – They will be throwing a party tomorrow, February 9, for the neighborhood children who have been attending an English class taught by Jaclyn each Friday. Families will be invited and they will have the opportunity to hear the Gospel, maybe for the first time. Please pray for receptive hearts.

Friday, February 9: Laura E. – Pray as young adult and children's activities at the center are in full swing. Pray for deep conversations with parents and for love to shower onto the kids. // Ben & Jessica – Pray for rest and refreshing for their family. It has been fairly busy since the Christmas season and they have had much work to accomplish, both with ministry and family/household work.

Saturday, February 10: Sarah – Language study is exhausting. Please pray for strength to endure long, grueling days and the ability to focus and memorize French grammar and vocabulary. Shawn & Becky – Learning a new language and juggling other ministry responsibilities can be very challenging. Pray for time management and perseverance as they learn the Wolof language.

Sunday, February 11: G David & Lou Ann – Please remember their pastoral search that is now in the District's hands. Their titular pastor Guillermo Hernández is in charge of working with the National Church committees. // David & Evangeline – Praise the Lord for His work in the life of Mrs. N. who was baptized last year. Please pray that she will continue to grow in the Lord.
