Guest Speakers...

Ron Foulk and Rob Douglas

Ron J. Foulk - Ron will be the guest speaker for the luncheon at Erie First Alliance Church. He was saved at eight years of age at Edinboro Camp. He started playing trumpet in the fourth grade and once played with Phil Driscoll. He joined the "Carriers," a Gospel Group in 1981. Ron has performed concerts, both singing and playing in many churches. He has directed and sang with the choir and runs the sound system in his home church. Ron has some interesting pets: two Boa Constrictors. One has lived for 30 years.

Rob Douglas - Rob will be the guest speaker at: Emporium, Chippewa and Mahaffey Camp. He was born in Vietnam as the son of missionary parents and spent 14 years in Vietnam, Indonesia and Malaysia. Rob served since 1991 in the Greenville Alliance Church as Youth Pastor, Assistant Pastor and then as the Senior Pastor in 1996. In 2009, he was appointed the Director of Church Health for the WPA District where he is also a Regional Team Leader. One of his real passions has been to see the local church grow in its heart for those that don't know Christ around the world. He loves to see people grow in their faith and become excited about God working in the U.S. and around the world.

Menus vary at each location. $12 will provide you with a delicious meal which includes dessert, beverage and entertainment. Registration opens at 11:00 a.m. and lunch is served at 11:45 a.m. followed by one of the inspirational guest speakers, Ron Foulk or Rob Douglas.
