Good News! To thank you for your continued support, we have lowered the rental fee on all video and DVD study series in the Media Ministry Library.

The Media Ministry Library is an excellent tool to utilize in your local church for Sunday school classes, seminars, teacher training, retreats, small groups, VBS, outreach and much more. We want all selections to focus on current issues and concerns in today's society. We are excited about the new selections that have been added to our library.

Review the catalog and make your selection. We suggest that you choose more than one video because your first selection may already be rented. If you are unsure of your selection, you can arrange for a free preview. If you decide not to rent the video, return it to the district office. You are only required to pay the shipping cost. To save on the cost of shipping, return videos via Media Mail wrapped in brown paper.

To rent, arrange for a preview, reserve your selections, or make a donation to the library, contact Janeen Barrett by phone: 814-938-6920 or email: barrettj@cmawpa.org. Please return them to the district office immediately after you are finished with your study. Another church may have them reserved after you are finished.

For your convenience, the catalog is published on the District website at www.cmawpa.org under the Resources tab. If you would like to have a hard copy of the catalog, contact Janeen.

We accept donations for the library. The church donating the media will have free use of it at any time. You will also receive the value of the media in free rentals.

Happy viewing,

Focus on the Family
Pastor to Pastor
 With H.B. London, Jr.

- Choose Life! - Every life is precious! How can that sacred attitude that we are fearfully and wonderfully made—then transform our lives for the betterment of all God’s creation
- Forgiveness and Reconciliation: It’s been said that to err is human—to forgive, divine. But, sometimes it’s so hard to give up a well-deserved grudge. Can you relate?
- Pastors Unplugged: Whether you’re in the middle of a building expansion or hospital visitation, the whirlwind of endless activity never stops in the pastorate. As stress increases and personal time dwindles away, a nap on the couch can move to the very highest of priorities.
- Respect: Showing consideration is foundational to every relationship—your family, congregation and community. It’s called respect and the lack of it can often result in bitter conflict. Are you a person of respect? Would you like to be?
- Time Management: Everyone struggles with managing a 24-hour day. But, as a pastor, the urgent requests of those you serve often cry out for precedence over your own schedule. Must that overwhelming pace always be the “norm” for ministry life, or is there a better way?
- Up To The Task: Inadequacy. Insecurity. Loneliness. Isolation. Even the most gifted of God-called servants will struggle with these emotions at some point in their ministry. How can a pastor be prepared for the inevitable downs? Is there light at the end of the tunnel?
- What I Like About Being a Pastor: Remember when your call to ministry was passionate and satisfying? Sometimes it’s good to think back on the many reasons you became a pastor—the joy and the zeal—before you became battle weary.
