JOSEPH “Renewal in Faith”

Tuesday, April 6

This marks the beginning of your adventures to Lancaster, PA., the heart and soul of the Amish and Mennonite community in Pennsylvania. With early morning departures from Meadville, Mars, New Stanton, and Bedford, we set our sights on Lancaster.

Enjoy your evening meal at Good & Plenty Restaurant. Good & Plenty offers plenty of home style Pennsylvania Dutch cooking. Following your dinner, relax at the

Wednesday, April 7

Wednesday morning you will be treated to an extended Continental Breakfast at the Inn. Then visit the Farmer’s Market at Bird-in-Hand. Here you will find a large variety of fresh fruits, vegetables, meats, candy and jams and jellies. There is also plenty of fresh baked goods and a variety of crafts, glassware, books, and locally made furniture. A delightful country shopping experience for all.

In the afternoon you have reserved seating at the Millennium Theater for the brand new performance of “Joseph.” Sight and Sound’s depiction of this classic story will magnify the many qualities that make it appealing to all ages. Of all the characters in the Bible, perhaps Joseph is the best parallel to the character of Jesus that can be found. Joseph’s story of forgiveness and integrity has made the Bible story a timeless truth, inspiring generations of men and women to walk upright in the midst of great temptation.

There is a cast of 45 professional adult and child actors, dozens of live animals gracing the aisles, several amazing dream sequences including Joseph in his colorful coat “flying” over the audience, and a larger-than-life staging which includes a spectacular Egyptian palace scene spanning 300 feet and wrapping around three sides of the audience. Inspired by Joseph’s colorful coat, Sight and Sound has a vision to implement a brilliant color scheme into every fabric of this production, including the music, the costumes, the lights, the special effects, sets and so much more. You will leave this show energized with the character of Joseph, renewed in your faith and inspired to dream big for God’s glory!
