COMMENTS

We partner with CAMA's Malian counterpart called ODES–Mali "Development Organization for Hope in Mali" that works in various regions of Mali to help alleviate poverty in communities by preparing individuals to be advocates for community health through education, health and hygiene training, well drilling plus setting up food banks. Our role as CAMA has been to work alongside of ODES to assure that their projects' succeed.
Becky has been able to plug in at the Rahab center teaching and counseling young women at risk.
I've also enjoyed church-related ministries as well as working with short term teams.
