

What You Will Gain From This Conference

In today's culture, pastors, lay leaders, and believers in general have a real challenge—running the race set before us! To be successful in this race, the author of Hebrews 12 says that Jesus is central: we must “fix our eyes” on Him.

This conference will provide spiritual inspiration, renewed encouragement, and biblical insight—along with Christian fellowship and uplifting worship music to equip you to “run with endurance.”

Jeff Keeling of the Keeling Family gospel singers will bring special inspiration to our worship time with his outstanding musical talent.

The prayer of all of us here at Sharon Alliance is that you will be blessed and inspired to move ahead in your walk with our great God and Savior Jesus Christ.

Just one more thing: There is no fee for this conference or love offering to be taken. . .

This is a gift from our church to you.

Experienced Speakers For Our Conference

Bill Rudge (top) has a B.A. degree and over 35 years of extensive research and ministry experience as well as taking many advanced courses. He is an ordained chaplain with The Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Bill's focus is on challenging believers to reach their maximum potential in Christ by being biblical Christians.

He shares powerful testimonies of God's faithfulness and protection in the midst of impossible situations.

BJ Rudge (middle) has a doctorate with 12 years of graduate school training and several years of ministry experience. BJ is an ordained chaplain with Chaplain Fellowship Ministries. He is an adjunct professor with California Biblical University and Seminary and a faculty mentor for Columbia Evangelical Seminary.

BJ's focus is on apologetics as he deals with the accuracy and reliability of Scripture, the truth and uniqueness of Christianity, evidence for the resurrection, and contemporary issues.

His emphasis is also on end-time prophecy, total commitment to Jesus Christ, and the importance of studying Scripture and prayer.

Jim Weikal (bottom) has been the pastor-teacher of Sharon Alliance Church since his installation in September of 2006.

He was a high school English teacher for 32 years as well as a Bible teacher, Sunday school teacher, and staff researcher for Bill Rudge Ministries. He has spoken on numerous college campuses as well as from many pulpits in the area.

Our Lord has tripled church attendance since 2005 through Jim's expository, verse by verse preaching, multimedia Bible studies and Sunday school classes, and a Christ-centered worship service.
